Lending conditions weigh on housing demand

City of Calgary, June 1, 2018 – May sales activity continue to ease with the largest declines occurring in the detached sector. Additional gains in new listings continue to increase inventory levels.

City-wide sales activity in May totaled 1,726 units and is 19 per cent below last years' levels. This is 24 per cent below longer-term averages. Sales activity in the detached sector declined to levels not seen in over a decade.

“The impact of rising lending rates and stricter qualification levels is causing demand to ease across all product types,” said CREB® chief economist Ann-Marie Lurie.

“Economic conditions have improved compared to several years ago, but the pace of recovery has not been enough to outweigh the changes in lending conditions.”

Market supply didn't adjust to sales activity in May, which pushed months of supply to 4.9 months. Elevated supply relative to demand prevented any further price recovery in the market and city-wide residential benchmark prices totaled $436,900. This is similar to last month and 0.6 per cent below levels recorded last year.

Detached sales and inventories have risen across all price ranges, but the amount of excess supply has been most notable for homes priced above $500,000. Months of supply for the higher price ranges remain high compared to the past several years. However, they still remain below record levels that occurred post financial crisis (2008 – 2009).

“The changes in the lending market are preventing some people from moving up in the market. Uncertainty has also caused others to wait on making changes to their housing situation,” said CREB® president Tom Westcott.

“However, there are pockets of the market that have not seen the same supply increase. It makes it so important to understand the dynamics of your community.”

HOUSING MARKET FACTS

- Year-to-date detached sales in Calgary totaled 4,047 units. This is 21 per cent below last year's levels and 26 per cent below long-term levels. Further gains in new listings across most districts pushed up inventory levels.
- Detached benchmark prices totaled $504,500 in May. This is similar to last month and 0.4 per cent below last year. Year-to-date, benchmark prices remain comparable to last year, but remain nearly four per cent below 2014 highs.
- Detached price changes have varied depending on the district. Compared to last year, year-to-date benchmark prices have risen in the City Centre and West areas, while remaining relatively stable in the North West, South and South East areas of the city.
- Apartment condominium sales totaled 1,104 units this year, a decline of nearly 12 per cent over last year. The number of new listings has eased slightly over last year and is preventing more significant gains in inventory levels. Overall months of supply remain elevated in this sector causing further declines in prices. City-wide unadjusted benchmark prices totaled $256,200 in May. This is slightly lower than last month and nearly four per cent below last year's levels and 15 per cent below previous highs.
- Attached sales eased and new listings rose causing further inventory gains and months of supply to push above five months. Overall attached prices in May remained relatively stable. This was due to gains occurring in the row sector being offset by declines in the semi-detached market.
- Year-to-date semi-detached benchmark prices averaged $418,480, 0.5 per cent below last year. Price adjustments did vary by district, with easing occurring in the North, North West and South East areas. This offset the gains recorded in other districts of the city.
- Year-to-date row benchmark prices improved over last year's levels due to gains mostly in the City Centre and North end of the city. Row prices continue to remain over nine per cent below the unadjusted highs recorded in 2014.
